What is the Summer Reading Program?

We are excited about our partnership with PWC Library's summer reading program. It's our desire create strong confident reading skills for future success.

What is Youth for Unity?

Youth for Unity is based on activities that helps youth appreciate themselves as unique and special individuals: understand our society diversity: and recognize unfairness, laying the groundwork for young people to take personal leadership

Ultimate experience

We are committed to serve our families by insuring we provide the ultimate experience. Using these five key elements.

1. Safe, positive environment
2. Fun
3. Supportive Relations
4. Opportunities and expectations
5. Recognition

General Information

Fire Drills & Weather Emergencies

Fire drills are scheduled and held periodically. Evacuation charts are located in each classroom. In the event of inclement weather, the children will be brought indoors.

In the case of natural disasters/weather events our youth will be taken to the safest locations within the building. Battery-operated radios are available for staff to keep apprised of such situations. Emergency phone numbers, including 911 and the Poison Control Center are posted.

Emergencies & Infectious Disease

Parents will be immediately notified in the event of a club wide emergency. Parents will be notified in writing of any infectious disease. Look for the sign up for important updates from the Heiser Crew.

A morning snack is not provided however, the allotted time for breakfast is at arrival. We encourage a healthy morning breakfast.

A ready to eat bag lunch is required. Please assist your child in packing a well balance lunch. Refrigerators and microwaves are not available. We suggest using an insulated bag with a coolant. Please label lunch bags to prevent confusion.

A afternoon snack will be provided by the Heiser club.

Swim/Field Trips

Camp Shirts

Swim/Field Trips

The summer field trip permission slips must be completed. Please make sure your child understands the rules for their own safety.

During transportation all youth are required to wear their seatbelts. Youth must abide by all rules and behave appropriately. Any youth unable to consistently follow directs pertaining to trips will lose bus privilege's. All tips are based on behavior there are no refunds for paid trips.

For safety reasons, it is mandatory that children wear their camp shirts on all field & swim trips. It makes it easier to spot youth that are in public locations.

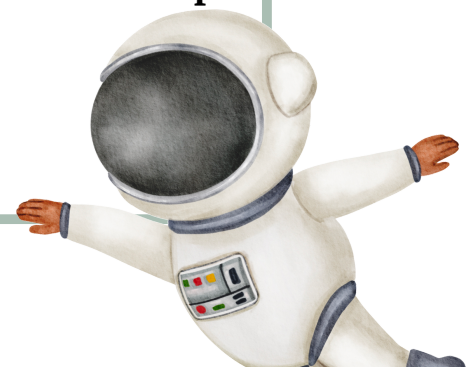

If a child does not have the appropriate shirt for their field/swim trip day they may not participate in the trip. We do not have extra shirts to sell. Please, mark all items with your youth's name on them.
